A colorful illustration of two young children, a boy and a girl, standing in a snowy environment at night. They are both wearing red hats with white pom-poms, thick winter coats, and dark trousers. The boy is on the right, wearing a green coat with a large yellow circular emblem on the chest, and is smiling broadly with his eyes closed. The girl is on the left, wearing a yellow coat with purple sleeves and a purple belt, also smiling. They are holding hands. The background features a dark blue night sky with small yellow stars and several bare trees with clusters of white flowers or blossoms. The ground is covered in white snow.

Ideas:

- Go through the book again and ask students to practice the sentence, (Wílìdeh Yati k'e danì _____ ha ts'edí?) with different words from the images.
- Once students know the word for star/s ask them to count the stars on the page. Where there are no stars they need to learn the negative – there are no stars.
- Practice verbs such as, who is talking, walking, jumping, smiling, sitting? Answer could be one (or both) child, snowman, grandma is talking, walking, smiling.
- Practice colours with nouns– what colour is the hat, scarf, parka, mitts, boots, skirt, backpack, snow, rabbit, willow?
